Message from the East

Dear Brothers,

“Freemasonry is a beautiful system of morality, veiled in allegory and illustrated with symbols.” This what is explained to the candidate just prior to taking their oath or obligation. In fact, I have heard several brothers use this phrase when explaining Freemasonry to a non-Masons.

The original authors of the ritual are not known, we do know, through the ancient charges, that portions of our ritual have been around for hundreds, if not thousands of years. During the 1700s and into the 1800s several brothers made alterations to enhance the ritual, the most notable among them were William Preston and Thomas Smith Webb. William Preston, who resided in England, is credited with writing the foundation to the three lectures, which after years of work presented the first of the three to the Grand Lodge in England in 1772. He published several books including “Illustrations of Masonry”, and “Private Lectures of Masonry in Twelve Courses”. Thomas Smith Webb is said to have “Americanized” the ritual and published several editions of the Monitor with various titles. He taught this system of ritual to various Brothers several of whom traveled through the then U.S. teaching it.

We as an origination spend quite of bit time with regards to our ritual. The individual Brother in the officer line will spend hours of their time learning and memorizing it on their own and then be out several nights a month rehearsing it with their Brothers. We attend a District Lodge of Instruction on a monthly basis to learn and enhance our knowledge of the ritual, and then once a year we are required to demonstrate our proficiency of the ritual at a Grand Lodge of Instruction. So why do we spend so much time learning the ritual that man like Preston and Webb spent years developing and teaching to other Brothers? Refer back to the first line of this message, and ask yourself how do we teach these lessons of morality, tell the tales of allegory or illustrate the symbols. It is through our ritual. That is why our ritual is so important.

See you in lodge.

Fraternally,

Daniel E. O'Brien
Worshipful Master

Notes from the Worshipful Masters

Congratulation to our three new FC masons, Bro. David Carvin, Jr., Bro. Devin Keesler and Bro. Alex Richardson who were passed on June 25, 2018. If found proficient they will be raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason on September 24, 2018.

Well, it was a week late but, on Saturday August 18th we had our annual BBQ / Picnic. Another great day of fellowship. A big thank you to Bro. Ryan Stradling who did a great job organizing and putting it together. Also need to thank Bros. Joe Knecht, Kip Duffy, Jeremiah Phillips and everyone else who helped out. Also, a thank you to RW Jeremiah and his wife for use of their house.

At our June Communication we announced the winners of our annual raffle. Our big winner for the night was Kip Duffy, 2nd place Sean Chapman and 3rd place Cathy Parker. Thank you to everyone who supported the raffle and to Michael DiCrocce who organized the raffle and made sure everyone got their tickets. The amount of time and effort the Brothers put into these events, like the raffle and the picnic, continues to make me appreciative of being a member of this lodge. What a great job Brothers. Also, at our June Communication, on Hawaiian shirt night, the lodge donated $500 to Shriners Hospital of Philadelphia.

Brethren,

Prior to the Annual Grand Communication of The Most Ancient and Honorable Society of Free & Accepted Masons for the State of New Jersey, a new software application, Circumscribe, was presented and the implementation began shortly thereafter. The Lodge membership data migration is now complete, and you now have access to the new system. It is important for you to login as soon as possible, review your profile, make any appropriate changes to your contact information, and upload a current picture for your new permanent ID card.

To login to Circumscribe, simply follow these instructions:

(Example: NJ1234567@changeyouremail.info)

NOTE: your Grand Lodge Number is printed on your current Dues card.
