Message from the East

Greetings Brethren,

I recently read an article published on February 16, 2016, by the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) that remains very timely. The original article was inspired by the 2016 Benjamin Franklin Founder Award to Dr. Paul Offit. Dr. Offit is an internationally recognized expert in infectious diseases. I hope you will find the information from this article of interest, especially after Ben Franklin's visit to Medford Lodge on 2/14/22.

As you know, Benjamin Franklin and Dr. Thomas Bond founded Pennsylvania Hospital, the nation's first hospital, on May 11, 1751. I was lucky enough to have had the opportunity of working at the Hall Mercer Hospital of Pennsylvania Hospital and I was able to freely roam the halls of the historic part of the hospital on Pine Street, including the old operating room.

The CHOP article points out that Benjamin Franklin was an "avid supporter of smallpox inoculation in the 1730's." This strong interest most likely derived from the death from smallpox of his four-year-old son, Frances. At that time, the primary method of protection from smallpox was through a process called "variolation." This process involved "taking pus from a smallpox pustule of an infected person and either injecting it into a nonimmune person or drying it for later inhalation as a powder by a nonimmune person." The product from variolation caused a "mild form of the illness" but it offered "lifelong immunity."

Needless to say, many found the "purposeful infection through variolation unacceptable; but as was his talent in proscribing enlightenment and nuanced thought to traditional thinking, Franklin educated himself on the matter and came to see the process as groundbreaking."

Brother Franklin died on April 17, 1790, six years before Edward Jenner invented the smallpox vaccine, the world's first vaccine, but it took an additional 200 years for smallpox to be finally eradicated. It has been estimated that approximately 500 million died from smallpox in the last 100 years prior to eradication.

Fraternally,
WM John Quintana

Notes From The Worshipful Master

Notes from the Worshipful Master:

My Dear Brothers,

History came alive at Medford Lodge in January 2022 and February 2022 with the visits of George Washington and Benjamin Franklin. The insights regarding these two founding fathers provided by Sam Davis and Robert DeVitis were wonderful! The March 14, 2022, Regular Communication will bring Martha Washington to Medford Lodge through the presentation of Ms. Alisa Dupuy. The Lodge will go on refreshment at 8 PM and all are welcome to attend and meet Martha Washington.

Please don't forget to bring goods for the Food Pantry! Our gratitude to RW Jeremiah Phillips for working on the Trestle Board, while WB Rick Young continues to get well. Continued thanks to the officers of Medford Lodge for their outstanding contributions to the Lodge.

Please remember that DLI will take place on Tuesday, March 1, 2022, at Medford Lodge at 6:30 PM to 9 PM.

The DGM Fundraiser takes place on Friday, March 4, 2022, at 6 PM to 10 PM at Crescent Shrine in Westhampton, NJ.

MEDFORD LODGE #178

Mason of the Month

(March 2022)

Brother Michael Chadwick

Where were you born?

I was born in Arizona but my father (a Shriner) moved around a lot for work. We moved a few times before finally settling in Texas, where we lived in The Woodlands from the time I was in Kindergarten until graduating from high school there in 1989.

What was your current / last occupation?

I currently run my own company, Chadwick Creative Arts, and have been doing so variably part-time or full-time since 2002. I have been an opera singer, an opera stage director, music engraver, technical support supervisor, accountant, theatrical house manager, database administrator, and more. I was even a professional juggler and fire eater when I was in high school.

If you could meet any person (dead or alive), who would it be?

John Cleese. I have admired him my entire life. He has made me laugh, he has made me think, he has brought me such great joy and shared such wisdom with the world.

What is your favorite quote?

"It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, who comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who neither know victory nor defeat."

- Theodore Roosevelt

Are there any random facts you can share about yourself with the brethren?

I have been fortunate enough to share the stage with some of the greatest talents of the opera world including Luciano Pavarotti, Samuel Ramey, Frederica von Stade, Susan Graham, and many others. I've also performed with some of the greatest conductors including Riccardo Muti and Kurt Masur.

I make supertitles (projected translations) for opera companies and orchestras, and have provided them for organizations on four continents and nearly every U.S. State.

I helped make the composer's demo for the Disney film Frozen because the song writers are family friends and they needed a low bass voice for the ice farmers at the beginning of the film.

I've been part of one of the stupidest world records of all time: The most people singing "Under the Bridge" under a bridge (in NYC).

I'm a descendant on my mother's side from Dr. Josiah Bartlett (Declaration signer) and pretty directly from Lt. Col. Nicholas Lotz, who was an officer during the Revolutionary War. He was among the soldiers that narrowly escaped Long Island by that miraculous East River crossing we learned about from "General Washington" in January.

I met my wife in 1990 during our undergraduate studies at Westminster Choir College, but we were merely good friends until we started dating in 2007.

I have written three books. My most successful has been the sardonic self-help book entitled Better Living Through Selective Apathy. I also wrote an "urban fantasy" novel called Balancers which won Third Prize in the Readers' Favorite Awards.

I was named after a college friend of my mother's who died in Vietnam just before I was born. I came out with an odd, scattered birth mark in the exact place where his fatal shrapnel wound was located. My mom about lost her mind when she saw it.

What keeps you engaged and active with the lodge?

I'm enlivened by the honorable approach to life that I see in my brothers, which encourages me to strive harder and be a good example of quality in my own interactions with the world around me. I enjoy the history and the ritual very much, and I look forward to sharing the profound honor of being a Mason with others.

Hailed as the world's oldest Masonic ritual, the Edinburgh Register House Manuscript of 1696 starts with a catechism for proving a man who has the word is really a mason. Among other things, the person seeking entry is expected to name his lodge as Kilwinning, which is reputed to be the oldest Lodge in the world. A Fellow Craft is further expected to know and explain a Masonic embrace called the five points of fellowship.

Brother Cooper has been the Curator of the Grand Lodge of Scotland Museum and Library for over 20 years and is a Past Master of Quatuor Coronati Lodge, No.2076. Not only has he written extensively on Masonic matters, but he has also appeared on television and participated in radio programs around the world on the subject of Freemasonry. He has an abiding interest in all matters relating to Freemasonry prior to the Grand Lodge era with a particular interest in manuscript rituals, including pseudo-Masonic rituals from the 17th century.

This program is open to Master Masons in Amity with the Grand Lodge of New Jersey F&AM and the Grand Lodge of Scotland AF&AM
