Message from the East

Greetings Brethren,

As Freemasons, we are briefly introduced to Astronomy during our engagements as a Fellowcraft. Among the many Sciences presented to us that evening, it continues to hold onto its grand mysteries. With telescopes, we gaze deep into history- at light from stars long past- the remnants of which exist in each and every one of us. With rockets and satellites, we reach out to the nearby planets. Those celestial bodies, which are so close to us in scale, are still, so far. And it is only with great undertaking, and with great effort, that we are able break the surly bonds of Earth, to travel the cosmos.

It is through the careful study and application of Arithmetic and Geometry, that we are able to outline and discern Astronomy's secrets.

Through which we attempt to unravel its mysteries, and by extension, we try to understand our Creator's Wondrous works. We exist in an age where we now know more about Astronomy than what our forefathers knew about the seas they traveled upon. Where the sextant once used the Moon and stars to guide Man on Earth's surface, we live in a time where Man has left their impressions on the face of the Moon. And yet, the more knowledge we gain about the Heavens, the more we understand how vast and infinite our Universe truly is, and so little of it that we actually know.

And so, Brethren, a new age of exploration is dawning. One that promises new horizons and discoveries beyond imagination. And it is hoped that the divine light continues to guide us into its vast expanse.

“What will be the next thing that challenges us, (...)That makes us go farther and work harder? (...) as we did in the times when our eyes looked towards the heavens and, with outstretched fingers, we touched the face of God.”

(“The Crackpots and These Women” The West Wing - Sorkin & Darzan 1999)

Fraternally,
WM Rigil Abellanosa

Notes from the Worshipful Master:

Brethren, December has truly been a whirlwind of a month. Many thanks to those Brethren who came out to our Annual Meeting, and to the well-wishers who were unable to attend.

A special thanks to my Installation Team; WB Christian Stebbins (Beverly-Riverside #107), WB Daniel O'Brien, WB David Carvin, RW Howard Black III, and WB George Wigginton.

Aside from the many installations in the district, I am happy to have participated in our 2nd annual Holiday Charity Luncheon, which I hope becomes a lasting tradition. Thanks again to the Brethren who reached out to the families in need, and to those who attended the luncheon. Br. JW, Rudy Hatala deserves special mention, as he was the primary organizer, and the one to hit the ground running for this event.

I would also like to take this moment to thank you, the Brethren, for being a part of this Lodge. Without you there would be no Medford #178. Thank you for being a part of our Fraternity. The future looks busy for us at 25 Bank Street, we have a number of petitions waiting in the wings, as well as a few events on the horizon, including our Annual Masonic Shoot on April 29th. I hope to see you all there.

Notes From The Worshipful Master

Notes from the Senior Warden.

Did you know...

As Freemasons we are often reminded that many famous and important Brethren have contributed to the success of the United States of America in a variety of ways. We know about George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, John Paul Jones and many other great leaders but,

Did you know...

Freemasons have contributed to many areas of science and knowledge. This is just a sampling of the Brethren that have contributed to the success of the moon landing and NASA programs.

This Brother was the second man to step on the moon's surface in the Apollo 11 lunar landing and was a member of Clear Lake Lodge No. 1417 of Seabrook, Texas, as well as a member of the Scottish Rite bodies. Not well known is the fact is that he carried a double-headed eagle banner of the Scottish Rite, with an inset square and compasses and Grand Commander's emblem, on his journey. Acting under special deputation of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, Tranquility Lodge No. 2000 was founded in the Sea of Tranquility, though "meeting in Texas until a proper lodge room is constructed on the moon."

Illustrious Edwin Eugene "Buzz" Aldrin Jr., 33°, was raised to the Master Mason degree at Lawrence N. Greenleaf Lodge No. 169 in Colorado in 1956.

This Brother initially achieved fame as the third American to be launched into space and the first American to orbit the earth in February of 1962. He belonged to Concord Lodge No. 688 in New Concord, Ohio, and eventually served as a prominent United States senator and as a presidential candidate. He also came out of retirement to fly on a space shuttle in 1998, in part to conduct research on spaceflight and aging; he currently holds the record for being the oldest person ever to fly in space.

Illustrious John H. Glenn, Jr., 33°, petitioned Concord Lodge No. 688 in 1964 in his hometown of New Concord, Ohio. He was raised to Master Mason, 14 years later, due to his busy NASA schedule and Senatorial duties in 1978.

This Brother piloted the "Faith 7" spacecraft on a 22-orbit mission which concluded Project Mercury in May of 1963. He followed up this flight in August of the same year, commanding the two-man Gemini V mission. During Gemini V flight he, like Bro. Aldrin six years later, carried a Masonic flag in his personal possessions during the mission. Towards the end of his return flight, there were mission-threatening technical problems he had to overcome: the capsule suffered a power failure, carbon dioxide levels began rising and the cabin temperature jumped to over 38°C (100°F).

He used his understanding of star patterns, took manual control and successfully estimated correct re-entry into the atmosphere. He drew lines on the capsule window to help him check his orientation before firing re-entry rockets. "So I used my wrist watch for time," he later recalled. "My eyeballs out the window for attitude. Then I fired my retrorockets at the right time and landed right by the carrier."

Illustrious Leroy Gordon "Gordo" Cooper, Jr., 33°, was raised in Carbondale Lodge No. 92 of Carbondale, Colorado in 1965.

Notes From The Worshipful Master

Notes from the Junior Warden:

As 2022's calendar year has come to a close. I personally, always like to reflect and take a "mental inventory" of all that has occurred this past year. Whether it be my masonic duties, events or obligations, my personal family moments with my children growing up, loss, coaching moments, or lastly my professional growth and development with helping the sick and af-firmed.

This time of year, often brings to thought the changing of the season, like the cyclical birth and death of the mythical phoenix whose immortal life is constantly starting anew. To me it represents my personal journey, the year prior is being shed and preparing myself for the adventures of the ensuing year. I encourage everyone to do the same! As many of us know, all too well when the grand artificer calls us to the lodge on high, we all look back and hope to have lived a full life without regret. Now is the time to remember and enjoy those thoughts and feelings not at the last fleeting moments of life.

I implore you never live your life with regret. Every decision you have made has led you to this moment and made you the brother you are today. Brethren, as this masonic and calendar year begins, I look forward to all the moments we will share together this masonic year.

As the phoenix sheds its old self to rise anew so do five new candidates, shed their old lives to begin their masonic journeys to becoming better men and brethren. (EA degree February 20th 2023).

MEDFORD LODGE # 178

Mason of the Month

(January 2023)

Distinguished Brother George Massey

Where were you born?

I was born in Camden, NJ. I have been a South Jersey Boy my entire life. I grew up in the Pine Barrens of Tabernacle, NJ right next to the Wharton State Forest.

What was your current / last occupation?

Currently, I am a Business Analyst for a defense contractor. I help people define their business processes and look at ways to improve them automate them using the Microsoft Power Platform and other software platforms. One of my past jobs that I loved was when I managed the manufacture of portable armor systems. I traveled all over the country and the world inspecting and demonstrating the product. I happen to be in the Middle East at an Afghanistan reconstruction summit when Osama got whacked! That was incredible as we had a demo for the Pakistani generals!

If you could meet any person (dead or alive), who would it be?

It's a toss-up for me, between George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Both men guided our country in times of extreme peril and would love to get their take on current events. In addition, when asked why I wanted to be a Mason, my response was if George Washington was one, I want to be one also. President Lincoln's story is an American dream and would love to talk about his journey.

What is your favorite quote?

“Nuts!” The US Army's 101st Airborne Commanders response to the German Army's request to surrender at Bastogne.

- 101st commander, Brigadier General Anthony C. McAuliffe

Are there any random facts you can share about yourself with the brethren?

I like to hunt, on my first trip out west to Montana for elk, didn't get any elk, but got my first mule deer buck, 2 x 3 rack. These deer make ours look like dogs in size.

Joined the US Army at age 27 (yep, I was the old guy in the platoon at basic),

Have 2 grand kids and another on the way.

What keeps you engaged and active with the lodge?

Camaraderie and a common purpose. Since the day I was initiated, I decided I wanted to be active in the Lodge. Kip got me involved in the kitchen right away and I feel like I haven't left it. I remember being in the kitchen working a table lodge and saying to myself, why did I do this and five minutes later Rick Young, our incoming Worshipful Master asked me if I wanted to be the Junior Steward, I didn't even think about for minute and replied “Yes”. Got out of the line for year thinking I could never learn the ritual, but after some time and practice it starts to come and got back in the line. I am also a Shriner, Royal Arch Mason, Counsel and Knights Templar. Didn't expect to join all that but the brethren are great.
