Message from the East

Greetings Brethren,

Dr. Jose P. Risal joined Logia Acacia No. 9 of the Gran Oriente de España in Madrid, Spain where he was (presumably initiated) in 1883. In 1889, Risal joined Logia Solidaridad in Barcelona where he was Raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason on November 15th, 1890.

Rizal's involvement with Freemasonry began when he joined the Masonic Lodge Acacia in Madrid, Spain. Freemasonry attracted Rizal because of its ideals of liberty, equality, and fraternity, which aligned with his own aspirations for the Philippines. He saw Freemasonry as a means to promote social and political reforms in his homeland.

Rizal's association with Freemasonry became a subject of controversy during his time and continues to spark debates among historians. The Spanish colonial authorities, who considered Freemasonry a subversive and revolutionary organization, closely monitored Rizal's activities and used his Masonic affiliation against him during his trial for sedition and rebellion.

Rizal's Masonic connections played a significant role in shaping his views on national identity, freedom, and social justice. He advocated for reforms through peaceful means and believed in the power of education and enlightenment to uplift the Filipino people. Rizal's writings, including his novels "Noli Me Tangere" and "El Filibusterismo," reflect his deep concerns about social inequality and the abuses of colonial rule.

In 1892, Rizal established the La Liga Filipina, a civic organization aimed at seeking political and social reforms peacefully. However, his involvement with the group caught the attention of the Spanish authorities, who considered it subversive. Rizal was arrested and exiled to Dapitan, a remote town in Mindanao, in the southern Philippines.

Despite his exile, Rizal's influence continued to grow, and he remained an iconic figure for the nationalist movement. In 1896, the Katipunan, a secret society advocating for armed revolution against Spanish rule, began a rebellion. Although Rizal was not directly involved, his association with some members led to his arrest on charges of rebellion, sedition, and conspiracy.

Rizal's trial was a sham, and he was found guilty on all charges. On December 30, 1896, he was executed by firing squad at Bagumbayan (now known as Luneta Park) in Manila. Moments before his death, Rizal showed immense courage and dignity, uttering his final words, "Consummatum est" (It is finished).

In 1993, José Rizal was named the national hero of the Philippines. In 1998, the Philippine government and the Philippine Executive Council of Greater Philadelphia dedicated a statue to Rizal along the Cooper River in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. Across from the statue is the Bataan Death Memorial.

Fraternally,
WM Rigil Abellanosa

Notes From The Worshipful Master

Notes from the Worshipful Master:

starting their new lives at new schools, universities, and careers. June 12th also marks the day the Philippines declared their independence from Spain in 1898. And much like with the United States' independence, several Freemasons were involved with forming the movement.

If this trestleboard finds you before May 29th, we will be participating in the Memorial Day Parade and our picnic following after. If it finds you after the 29th, it was a wonderful day, the weather good, and the food and fellowship was great as always.

The summer is looking to be busy and bustling. To start it off we will be having our Official Visit on the 12th. RW Richard F Labaw Jr. District Deputy Grand Master of the 19th Masonic District will be in attendance, and we will be exemplifying the Entered Apprentice Degree.

In the week immediately following on the 19th we will be conveying the Master Mason Degree on three candidates. All Master Masons are invited- Working Craftsmen are most welcome!

We will again have our summer work parties, dates and times to be announced, this years project will primarily focus on the entryway and stairway leading up to the second floor

We will also have our annual picnic, details soon to follow.

And finally before we break for the summer, I would like to share some music with you all, though it may come from a surprising place to some. And I hope it may inspire and comfort you.

Notes From The Senior Warden

Notes from the Senior Warden.

Did you know...

Born in 1889 in Darby, Pennsylvania this Brother as a young boy once traveled to New York City to the Trenton Fair with a "huckster". At the fair his job was to get people to play the shell game. After a constable chased him away and arrested the huckster he decided to go a different path.

He learned to tell stories and developed extraordinary juggling skills. At eighteen he boarded a train for the Vaudeville circuit. He continued developing his "silent" act through 1906 when he turned his attention to Broadway. It was here, after many years, that he first spoke on stage using a "muttering" style that helped to conceal a stutter. He developed a unique drunk-like persona and the ability to deliver a line like none before him. "Horse sense is the thing a horse has that keeps it from betting on people."

While with the Ziegfeld Follies he developed a pool playing skit using oddly shaped items. In later years his juggling and pool skits found their way into his movies. He was well known for his appearance as a hard-drinking misanthrope who teetered on the edge of buffoonery but never quite fell in.

Brother William Claude Dunkenfield "W.C. Fields" was raised to Master Mason in 1907 at E. Coppee Mitchell Lodge No. 936 (605) in Philadelphia.

Notes From The Worshipful Master

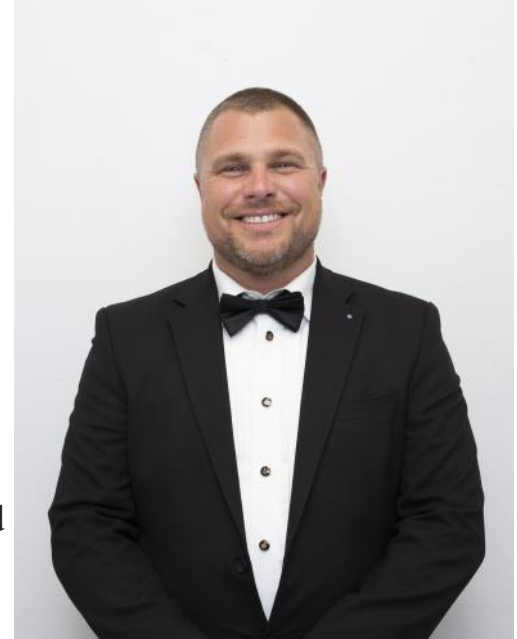

Notes from the Junior Warden:

Brethren, I would like to start off by echoing the sentiments of a fellow brother for your consideration. "The greatest gift of life is friendship and I have received it."

Brother Hubert Humphrey

We are about halfway through this year, and it seems like only yesterday we were practicing for advanced stations. This year is flying by and before we know it installation will be upon us. I wanted to remind everyone that continued focus and perseverance is needed to end the year as we started it, on a high note. Even though summer vacations will begin soon, Medford Lodge continues to be active.

June is a packed month, Medford has a Blood drive June 1st, Open DLI at Beverly-Riverside on June 6th (Bring your families). Medford's official visit is June 12th and finally a Master Mason degree on the 19th. It takes a village to keep this vast machine running and you all make this possible. If your cable tow allows it, consider coming out and joining in the fraternally communications and showing your support for your fellow brethren.

These past few months for myself have been hectic and nonstop but it has made me realize that friends and brethren will always be ready to help and assist when needed. "What we have done for ourselves, dies with us; what we have done for others and the world remains and is immortal." Brother Albert Pike

Medford Lodge #178 Mason of the Month (June 2023)

Brother Devin A. Keesler

Where were you born?

I was born in Voorhees, NJ and was raised in Marlton (Evesham) NJ.

What was your current / last occupation?

I am currently a Paralegal for the NJ Office of the Public Defender working out of Trenton NJ and help facilitate criminal record expungements. My last occupation I worked for CarShop in Mt. Holly NJ as a sales consultant for 2 years. Before that I worked as an Emergency Telecommunicator for Burlington County for five and a half years. Being a dispatcher was one of my favorite and most fulfilling occupations.

If you could meet any person (dead or alive), who would it be?

If I could meet anyone it would be my maternal grandfather's father Gabriel Royall. Up until two years ago no one knew who my maternal grandfather's real father was. I took it upon myself through DNA testing and tracing matches to figure out that family mystery. He was a traveling salesman from Virginia and met my grandmother while in NJ. I think it would be interesting to get his life story and just see what kind of person he was.

What is your favorite quote?

"Be not afraid of greatness. Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon 'em"

— Twelfth Night, William Shakespear

Are there any random facts you can share about yourself with the brethren?

I was a volunteer firefighter for two years.

I am a passionate fan of movies, with my two favorite filmmakers being Mel Brooks, Quentin Tarantino and the film studio A24.

I spent 3 weeks in Ireland and fell in love with the country and people

What keeps you engaged and active with the lodge?

What originally sealed my interest in the lodge was the instant acceptance by the brethren when I was hesitant about going forward with my application. I also enjoy that it gives my Father and I something to do that is just the two of us. It has become a fixture in the life of Myself, my Father, and a lot of my friends as well who have joined. I also enjoy seeing how active my brother has gotten with Squires and look forward to when he is able to join as well. The lodge has brought many people into my life that without it I never would have known.
