Message from the East

Greetings Brethren,

Freemasonry has long been associated with principles of brotherhood, charity, and moral uprightness. In our Closing Charge, we are reminded that, "Every human being has a claim upon your kind offices." This notion stems from the fundamental Masonic values of equality and compassion, which extend beyond the boundaries of race, religion, or social status. We as Freemasons assert that all individuals, regardless of their background, deserve respect, support, and assistance in times of need.

Our commitment to the betterment of society goes hand in hand with the idea that we as individuals have a duty to uplift their fellow human beings. This duty extends beyond the Masonic fraternity, encompassing the broader community. We, as Freemasons are encouraged to engage in acts of kindness, charity, and enlightenment, thereby contributing to the overall progress and well-being of humanity. In essence, the claim on the kind offices of Freemasonry is a call to action for individuals to embrace their shared humanity, cultivate empathy, and actively participate in creating a more compassionate and harmonious world.

Fraternally,
WM Rigil Abellanosa

Medford Lodge #178 will once again be participating in the Toys-For-Tots program this year. The Marine Corp Reserve has long led the way to ensure that children receive a special gift during the holiday season. During 2023 Burlington County Toys-For-Tots provided toys to 59,778 children. As we enter the end of 2023 it is important to ensure that the children in our community know they are in your thoughts.

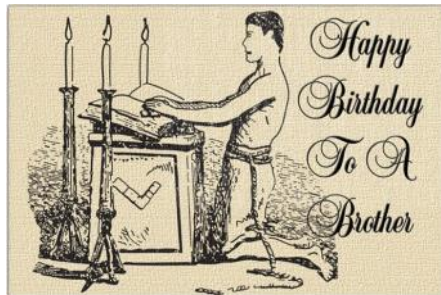

Please bring your new, unwrapped toy, to the Lodge from now through our December 11th Annual Meeting. Let's make a difference and provide a smile to a deserving child. Information on the program is available at <https://www.toysfortots.org>.

Notes From The Worshipful Master

Notes from the Worshipful Master:

Brethren,

Serving as your Worshipful Master has been an honor beyond words, a journey that has enriched my life and deepened my connection to each one of you.

Together, we have navigated the intricate tapestry of Masonic principles, fostering brotherhood, integrity, and enlightenment. The bonds we have forged extend beyond the walls of our sacred lodge, reaching into the very fabric of our lives. It is with a profound sense of gratitude that I look back on the shared rituals, meaningful conversations, and the collective pursuit of truth that have defined our time together.

I thank the Brothers who had taken up the task of being the Lodge Officers, and the members that had come out to support us at practices and rehearsal this past year. Your efforts and dedication have led to a most memorable year, and your efforts and labor are to be congratulated and recognized. I truly could not have done it without all of you.

As I pass the gavel to my successor, I am confident that our lodge will continue to thrive under the guidance of capable hands. The flame of Masonic light shines brightly within each of you, and I am certain that you will carry it forward with the same dedication and zeal that has marked our tenure together.

I extend my deepest thanks to each Brother for the trust you placed in me and for the unwavering support that has been the cornerstone of our success. The memories we have created will forever hold a special place in my heart, and I look forward to continuing this journey as a devoted member of our distinguished lodge.

May the compass always guide you, the square keep you just, and the light of the Great Architect illuminate your path.

Fraternally Yours,

Rigil Kent Abellanosa

Notes from the Senior Warden.

Did you know...

Born and raised in Scotland, he became a sailor at thirteen, and served as commander of several merchant ships. Later in his career in the West Indies, after the flogging of a mutinous sailor he was charged as “unnecessarily cruel”, while on bail he fled to Virginia and joined the newly founded Continental Navy. The Navy was being formally established, and good ship’s officers were in great demand. His potential would have gone unrecognized were it not for the endorsement of Richard Henry Lee, and influential members of the Continental Congress.

He received a commission aboard the 30-gun frigate the USS Alfred, becoming the first man to be assigned the rank of first lieutenant of the new Continental Navy. It was aboard this vessel that he took the honor of hoisting the first U.S. ensign—the Grand Union Flag—over a naval vessel.

He was then assigned command of the sloop USS Providence where he transported troops, moved supplies, and escorted convoys. His next orders back on the USS Alfred were to liberate hundreds of American prisoners forced to work in coal mines and to raid British shipping. Winter conditions prevented the rescue however during the voyage he captured sixteen prizes.

His next orders aboard the USS Bonhomme Richard, leading a five ship fleet, encountered a convoy of 44 merchant ships with supplies for British soldiers. He attacked the lead ship, Serapis, and captured it while losing his own ship to damage. During this battle it is said in response to the British Captain query he shouted, “I have not yet begun to fight”

Brother John Paul Jones was raised to Master Mason in 1770 at St. Bernards Lodge No. 122, Kirkcubright, Scotland.

Notes from the Junior Warden:

Brethren, Singer Andy Williams sang a song “It’s the most wonderful time of the year.” He must not have been a mason! With so many events such as the Annual Communications, Installations, Advance stations, holiday parties, wheelchair pushes and family events, December is the “Most stressful time of the year”.

Brethren, it has been a year I will not soon forget! With this Masonic year ending, I would like to say thank you to all the brethren for having faith and electing me as your Junior Warden. It has been my honor, pleasure and privilege to serve Medford Lodge. To the officers of Medford Lodge thank you for your support and confidence and allowing me to sit in the East for our Entered Apprentice degrees. To all Past Masters of Medford Lodge who have offered gentle council and guided me in this journey, I say thank you. Lastly, to my family for giving me the time and patience needed to perform my duties as Junior Warden no words can express my gratitude. None of what we accomplished this year could have been done without each and every one of us. A new year means new possibilities, new goals, and new motivations. As we press on, remember that you have promised to befriend and relieve every brother who shall need your assistance. Reach out, extend a helping hand and offer aid to our brethren.

We are concluding this masonic year with Medford’s Holiday party and Luncheon (December 17th), Masonic Home Wheelchair push (December 17th), and our Annual Communication (December 11th). I wish you and your loved ones the happiest and healthiest Holiday season. May the blessings of heaven rest upon us and all regular Masons.

Mason of the Month

MEDFORD LODGE #178

Mason of the Month

(December 2023)

Brother Robert Foster

Where were you born?

I was born in Albuquerque, NM. When I was 3 years old we moved to Charlotte, NC for 9 months then back to Albuquerque. I graduated from HS in May of 1990 and in July I left for Navy bootcamp. My family and I moved to Lansdale, PA at the height of the pandemic in October 2020, then to Medford in April in 2021.

What was your current / last occupation?

I am currently a Registered Nurse and work for a company based in Nashville that focuses solely on wound care. We currently provide telehealth wound care in corrections facilities across the country and we are building a program to deliver wound care in the home.

If you could meet any person (dead or alive), who would it be?

Joshua Chamberlain and Theodore Roosevelt. They are both leaders that had to overcome different struggles in their lives to achieve what they did.

What is your favorite quote?

"The true measure of a man is how he treats someone who can do him absolutely no good"- Samuel L Jackson.

Are there any random facts you can share about yourself with the brethren?

As I mentioned earlier, I went into the Navy right out of high school. Where I was in the Naval Nuclear Propulsion Program. My specialty was as an Electrician's Mate where I served on the USS Florida (SSBN 728). Unfortunately, my father got sick so I had to take a Hardship Discharge so I could go back to Albuquerque and take care of him and run his upholstery business. When he was well again, I joined the Marine Corps. For whatever reason I decided to be an infantryman and was stationed in Norfolk, VA with FAST Company. When I got out of the Marine Corps, I was a union electrician for several years until deciding to go to nursing school. Starting college at 36 was a challenge, but thanks to my son always encouraging me I made it through and love being a nurse.

What keeps you engaged and active with the lodge?

Still being new to the brotherhood I just appreciate how men of such varied backgrounds come together for each other. I look forward to the journey ahead and continuing to learn.

The Grand Lodges of Delaware, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania invites you to attend UNITY DAY! January 27 2024

These are Masonic Rituals that many Master Masons otherwise would not have been exposed to unless, by chance, they travel to different States to observe them. Indeed, it is a rare event for most brothers to bear witness to the different styles of Masonry in a single sitting.

Without a doubt, this Unity Day event, with its participation of several Grand Jurisdictions, will go down in the history books as something you will not want to miss, which shall be remembered for decades.
