Message from the East

Greetings Brethren,

February includes many important dates to remember such as: President Washington's Birthday, Presidents Day, Valentine's Day and Ash Wednesday among others. As a nation we owe much to our first President and can learn much through his examples which embody the Masonic principles.

One of the best-known Freemasons, a leader and patriot without equal, George Washington was a surveyor, farmer, reluctant leader of the Continental Army and first President of the United States. Throughout his life Washington was ambitious yet reluctant and humble. He achieved many successes through strength of character, determination, and persistence. He was quoted as saying "Masonry is founded in justice and benevolence." And he believed "the grand object of Masonry is to promote the happiness of the human race."

As we consider our first President let's also consider the four Cardinal Virtues of Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence and Justice. Temperance is the use of restraint by controlling desires, whereas fortitude is the strength to withstand pressure and maintain secrecy. Prudence is wisdom and Justice is adherence to law, as well as personal judgement in our actions. These virtues and others were embraced and applied by Brother Washington throughout his life and are valuable lessons to each of us.

A final note on Washington is that the tradition of reciting the Pledge of Allegiance in the Lodge has been attributed to him.

Notes From The Worshipful Master

Notes from the Worshipful Master:

Brethren,

Another great month for Medford Lodge as we set a high standard for the District Lodge of Instruction (DLI) with sixteen (16) participants. Please remember that all Officers are expected to attend but that any Master Mason is always welcomed. The next DLI is at Medford, on February 6th, so come out and see the District 19 officers in action.

We had an update from Brother Srolovitz of our Temple Trustees on our investment account defining our progress and plans for changes this year.

Brother Christian Velenza JW (Beverly-Riverside) provided an enjoyable and informative presentation on the Knights Templar at our Regular Communication.

On January 22nd we conducted the Master Mason Degree with the assistance of the Widows Sons. They are highly skilled as the Craftsmen and helped to make the night memorable for all. On January 23rd we hosted another successful Red Cross Blood Drive.

Looking ahead we have a Wheelchair Escort (Push) on February 4th. Please let me know if you plan to attend.

The DLI will be at Medford on February 6th and our Regular Communication is on the February 12th which will feature Brother George Washington. We are also planning an Entered Apprentice Degree for February 26th.

Keep watching the app and our Trestleboard for some family fun. Kid friendly movies at the Lodge and family bowling in Medford.

If you would like to learn more about our Medford Lodge app for smart phones please give me a call at 856-533-8171.

Fraternally Yours,

WM Hugh Christine

WM, Hugh Christine

Notes from the Senior Warden.

Did you know...

This month we have a duo of masons, both with occupations in the NBA. The first mason was born right here in Newark, New Jersey. In high school he played for Robert G. Cole High School in San Antonio. This mason's stepfather was a career Army Reservist, and the family would travel with him on assignments. On a trip to Germany, this mason met his future coach at Louisiana State University. At LSU he was a two-time All-American, two-time SEC player of the year and the recipient of the Adolph Rupp Trophy as NCAA men's basketball player of the year. His career began as the #1 pick of the Orlando Magic in the 1992 NBA draft. In 1996 as a free agent, he went to the Los Angeles Lakers where he won 3 NBA championships. His nickname is "Diesel".

Who is this Month's Mason? Shaquille Rashaun O'Neal "Shaq" In a 2012 interview, Shaquille O'Neal was being questioned about a ring he was wearing while hosting Game Time. O'Neal responded "This is a ring of my profession. Shaq was made a mason in 2011 at Widow's Son Lodge No. 28 PHA in Boston, Massachusetts. Off the court Shaq has made public service a priority in his life, making untold donations to charities and organizations across the country, and even working as a reserve police officer in Los Angeles, Miami, and Phoenix.

This second mason was born September 25, 1965 in Hamburg, Arkansas and is a former Basketball player. He played for 17 years in the NBA. His most notable time was with the Chicago Bulls, where he won 6 NBA championships. He was also a member of the "Dream Team" the 1992 Olympic basketball team. He is considered one of the greatest small forwards of all time. This mason is the only NBA player to have won an NBA title and Olympic gold medal in the same year twice, having done so in both 1992 and 1996. Who is this Month's Mason? Scottie Maurice Pippen

While Brother Pippen has said little about his Masonic career, he is a Prince Hall Mason from Unity Lodge No. 454 PHA in Arkansas. People also speculate that this is the reason he wore number 33 during his career. However, he wore this number in college before ever becoming a mason.

Notes From The Worshipful Master

Notes from the Junior Warden:

Brethren,

By the Plumb Worshipful Sir....”
What makes Freemasons different than any other organization you can sign up, pay dues, get the sticker for your car and go out and do charitable events? The difference is we act by the Plumb.

Everyone regardless of what they do in life, if they believe in a higher power or even if they are the most wealthy powerful person in the world are all on the same level of reality that ends in death. A person who is living by the Plumb will always know everything he has done with his life has been beneficial to those around him.

This is what makes us different than the organizations, all of us that are part of this great brotherhood are living by the cardinal virtues of Freemasonry. Listen to the words that are spoken during ritual and apply those words to your everyday life and you will live as best as a man can get in this world no matter what station in life you are in at the moment. As we know your present condition can change at any moment completely out of your control. Know that we are all here for each other. That is what makes us Freemasons.

Mason of the Month

MEDFORD LODGE #178

Mason of the Month

(February 2024)

Worshipful Master Brother Hugh Christine

Where were you born?

I was born and raised in Southern NJ living in Mount Laurel among farm fields, orchards and woods. I attended Mount Laurel schools and Lenape High School graduating in 1977.

What was your current / last occupation?

My last occupation was as a senior project manager and acquisition manager for Lockheed Martin. My role required me to intervene in contracts where suppliers were not performing. This resulted in significant domestic and international travel working on a variety of advanced technologies for US and International customers.

If you could meet any person (dead or alive), who would it be?

Brother George Washington. One of our Founding Fathers that reluctantly accepted the assignment to lead our fledgling army. A surveyor, general and our first President. He had the vision and understanding to reject a permanent appointment instead insisting that leaders should return to their civilian jobs. I would enjoy an opportunity to understand the strength it took to turn away from England and risk his life and all that was precious to him to do what he felt was the right thing.

What is your favorite quote?

In the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years. -Abraham Lincoln

Are there any random facts you can share about yourself with the brethren?

I am a proud husband, father of two and grandfather of three. I am a survivor of many challenges. I long ago learned that family must come first and I am glad to include our Lodge as part of that family.

What keeps you engaged and active with the lodge?

The members. Our Fraternity is unique because it brings together men from all walks of life and provides a common ground to accept and respect each other. I derive satisfaction anytime I can offer assistance to a fellow brother and enjoy seeing each of us grow as we progress through the line.
