Message from the East

Greetings Brethren,

In our ritual the Worshipful Master will “set the craft at labor and give them good and wholesome instruction”. Is this simply a part of ritual, following an agenda or something more?

Masonic Work is the application of our skills and abilities to an effort. It is action conducted by each of us individually and collectively. The tenets of a Master Mason’s work are Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. A Lodge must find a path that allows all members to apply their skills and knowledge so that we can provide relief and improve in Masonry.

Brotherly Love drives us to consider all of humanity with kindness, thoughtfulness and affection for others. It unites us as a brotherhood that transcends borders, wealth and other considerations. We are on the level with all mankind.

Relief for the distressed is reflected in Wheelchair pushes, visiting the elderly and sick and supporting others. To have sympathy for another at a time of sadness such as the loss of a loved one. To help another find peace when it is needed. Raising funds for charity allows each of us to assist others each year.

Truth allows us to regulate our behavior. To remain true to ourselves allows us to consider our actions and words and allows us to continue to improve ourselves during our journey from rough ashlar.

Fraternally,
WM Hugh Christine

Notes From The Worshipful Master

Notes from the Worshipful Master:

Brethren,

To all Past Masters and Distinguished Brothers: You are cordially invited attend our March Regular Communication. We will have a presentation on the history of our Lodge and the Brethren which provided our foundation for success. Check your email.

Special note: In January we closed our Regular Communication with music provided by Bro. Chadwick. Come hear this original composition for yourself.

On February 4th seven (7) members participated in our Wheelchair Escort. We had the opportunity to meet many grateful residents and staff.

February 6th, Medford Lodge hosted the District Lodge of Instruction (DLI). The attendance was a record with eighty-six (86) Master Masons. The food, provided by DB Coppola of Femina Italian Grill, ensured we had a great start the evening.

The Regular Communication presentation was provided by Brother George Washington who discussed the Dark Days of the Revolution when things were not going well. The closing included a song from WB Abellanosa.

On February 18th we had our 1st Movie Matinee. This was a test of our systems to ensure that the sound and video worked well. All who helped declared it a success. Stay tuned for more Sunday Movie Matinees.

The next DLI will be on March 5th at Mount Moriah in Bordentown. All Master Masons are welcome.

For our upcoming Master Mason degree in the April/May timeframe we are looking for a few more nonspeaking craftsmen. If you are interested, please contact me.

If you would like to download and learn more about our Medford Lodge app for smart phones please give me a call at 856-533-8171.

Also, in February we initiated three (3) new Entered Apprentices. Come to our Emergent Communications, which are listed in the app, and watch as our newest Brothers progress through the degrees.

If you would like to learn more about our Medford Lodge app for smart phones please give me a call at 856-533-8171.

Fraternally Yours,

WM Hugh Christine

Notes From The Senior Warden

Notes from the Senior Warden.

Did you know...

This month's mason is not only famous for his fast-food restaurants but also being spotted in over 800 TV commercials from 1989 until 2002. His fast-food restaurants are not only known in the US but around the world. This is why his face and voice have become a household name. Not only was he noted for his business sense but also his extreme philanthropy. He was Born July 2nd, 1932, in Atlantic city, NJ. This mason did not know his birth mother. A young woman gave birth to him and his parents Rex and Auleva adopted him 6 weeks later.

Who is this Month's Mason?
Brother Rex David "Dave" Thomas

Dave Thomas was a member of Sol. D. Bayless Lodge #359. He was initiated at the age of 27 on April 13, 1959, passed on April 20, 1959 and raised on May 25, 1959 at The Masonic Temple in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Thomas was also a 33° Scottish Rite Mason and Shriner.

Brother Dave Thomas dedicated his life to giving funds and training resources to adoption agencies across the U.S. He created the Dave Thomas Foundation for Adoption focused solely on increasing the number of children getting adopted in the U.S. He created a legacy filled with a passion for helping others, quality to his customers, and love of Freemasonry. Dave along with a group of investors in 1982 founded The Wellington School in Ohio and to this day, it continues to operate. It was the first co-ed independent school in the Columbus Ohio area. Later in life (approximately 45 years) after dropping out of school, Dave officially received his GED.

Dave's Quotes

"There is no doubt in my mind that masonry is the cornerstone of America."

"You earn your reputation by the things you do every day."

"I think the harder you work, the more luck you have."

Fraternally,
Rudolph Hatala Jr.

Notes From The Worshipful Master

Notes from the Junior Warden:

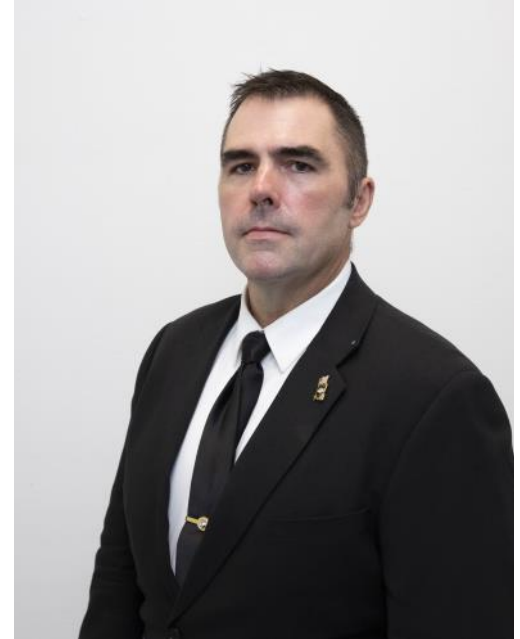

Brethren,

When is it time to ask for help?

Who can you rely on to be there to assist or support you with as little as a text to say “You’re on my mind brother.”? Or something as big as responding to your location when you need another person to help you?

In the last few months my life has spun upside down and backwards from multiple major illnesses in my family and countless other little things that can overwhelm me very quickly. I know that many of my brothers took notice that I was not my normal self and were immediate to ask if everything was okay. Even our newer brothers took the time to check if I was okay.

I finally threw my hand up and asked for help. The response I received from our brothers was amazing and I am well on my way back to level. Words cannot express how grateful I was to have that show of support. Thank you brothers!

Knowing that I can trust another Master Mason with my thoughts and feelings up to practically my life is one of the main reasons I became a Freemason. This is also a reason we guard the West Gate and only allow good men who will become virtuous in their own way with our guidance and instruction. The last few weeks I have pondered our Oaths & Obligations and Charges. We should remember to live by those words.

Be Safe!

February 26th—EA Degree—Congrats to our new EA Brothers

Mason of the Month

MEDFORD LODGE #178

Mason of the Month

(March 2024)

Brother Michael Angermeier

Where were you born?

I was born in Philadelphia, but moved to Indian Mills when I was four. I have been a die-hard South Jersey guy ever since.

What was your current / last occupation?

I am an Assistant County Prosecutor with the Burlington County Prosecutors Office. Currently, I am the head of the Gangs, Guns, and Narcotics Task Force where we focus on gang violence, narcotics trafficking and fatal overdoses.

If you could meet any person (dead or alive), who would it be?

George Washington.

I am sure this seems like kind of a bland answer, but I have always been fascinated by our First President. He was a paragon of virtue, duty, and honor and a man of great physical, mental, and moral strength. He was a man out of time even in his own age, with a code of conduct and morals more akin to a medieval knight than an enlightenment thinker. I still treasure my copy of his Rules of Civility.

He was also a true renaissance man. Washington was a great statesman, leader, warrior, politician, and Mason. It is no accident he was drawn to Masonry. He was part of a small group of heroic men who created and defended the greatest nation in history. Despite being offered almost limitless power, he turned it down to resume life as a planter because he believed that was best for the new Nation.

I would like the opportunity to see what this larger-than-life and almost mythical figure was like in person. I am sure he would not disappoint.

Mason of the Month

What is your favorite quote?

I have two:

"Never let the future disturb you. You will meet it, if you have to, with the same weapons of reason which today arm you against the present."

- Marcus Aurelius

"It's not who I am underneath, but what I do that defines me."

- Batman

Are there any random facts you can share about yourself with the brethren?

Looking back, becoming a Brother at the Medford Lodge seems like a matter of destiny. As soon as I moved back to Medford, I found myself repeatedly drawn to the Lodge.

In 2016, I moved to Medford and bought a house on Bank Street, only a few minutes' walk from our Lodge.

While working in the Major Crimes Unit, I was assigned to prosecute the murderer of Past Master Thomas W. Wright, II. When I responded to his residence the day of his murder, I accompanied officers who inventoried and processed the scene of the murder and the contents of his residence. I saw how Past Master Wright's Masonic regalia occupied a place of pride in his home.

During the initial investigation and subsequent prosecution, I spent a great deal of time with his family and learned that Masonry served as a guiding light for Past Master Wright and was a major reason he was able to turn his life around and become a success.

Also around this time I learned that First Assistant Prosecutor (Ret.) Philip Aronow, my mentor and friend, was a committed Mason. When I asked him about it, he introduced me to the values and joy of Masonry, encouraged me to join, and assisted in my pursuit of Light.

What keeps you engaged and active with the lodge?

Masonry provides men with something vital that is increasingly rare today. In a world of constantly changing subjective "truths" and moral relativism, Masonry is a bastion of truth and decency. The core values of moral and intellectual strength, appreciation of beauty, wisdom, pursuit of Light and knowledge, humility, fairness, generosity, and brotherly love have remained unchanged for hundreds of years. The men who form our Lodge do not merely share these values; they celebrate them.

The feeling of community and brotherhood is also very important to me. Unfortunately, my work keeps me from attending regular communications and degrees as much as I would like, but every time I am able to attend, I feel welcomed by the Brothers and at home in our Lodge.

Also, as a student of history, I love that the rituals and values of Masonry remained unchanged from the days of the Founding Fathers. I think this unbroken connection to the past is so important.

My Brother

I would like to take a minute to introduce you to one of the most EXCITING CLUBS in Masonry. The secret, HIGH TWELVE INTERNATIONAL. What's the secret?

NO FORMAL RITUAL
MEETINGS ARE ANYTIME and ANY DAY
GUESTS OR WIVES ARE WELCOME

I'm sure you have great memories of: sharing fellowship with your brothers, helping the local youth groups and assisting your Blue Lodge with their projects. That is what we are about, come and see.

Currently we have three clubs in New Jersey. Nelson Craig, Masonic Home and Mt. Laurel. They would love to see you at their next meeting. Bring your wife or guest if you like, all are welcome.

If there is not a club in your area and you would like to form one we are glad to help. Contact our International Secretary Thomas A. Brotherton III at secretary@high12.org.

Take time to visit our web site at high12.org, it is full of information and a great video by Ernest Borgnine (remember Mc Hales Navy?). There is also a sale on selected merchandise, get yours before we sell out.

Thanks for your time and we look forward to your continued support for High Twelve. If you have any questions please reach out to us.
